Biblical World View

Facilitators: Callie & Michael Young | missmay0789@gmail.com
Day & Time: Tuesday | 6:30pm
Location: Young's Home | Contact Leader for directions
Description: This group is focused on training Christians to think critically about their faith. The Old Testament is often difficult and intimidating for believers to read and understand, but it is essential to see its connection and continued importance for Christianity today. This semester we will survey the Old Testament, specifically working to see Christ's fulfillment of God's covenants with Israel and His ultimate plan for redemption. Join us as we challenge ourselves to dig deeper into the Word and why we believe what we believe!
